SOMETHING FOR THE ONE WHO HAS EVERYTHING.

Artist's impression

*Life, for you, has acquired a profound meaning,
a higher-order purpose.*

Wealth, no longer a measure of success.

*It's the enriching experiences,
the difference you make to lives,
and the goodwill you garner,
that you love to treasure and accumulate.*

*You do not seek to impress, you'd rather inspire.
With your meaningful choices, refined taste
and the way you look at life.*

*For you, is designed a life that is every bit worthy of your appreciation.
Every bit, worth the quest.*

A residential offering ready to be appropriated by the crème-de-la-crème, right in the centre of Bengaluru's finest address, at Richmond Road – it promises to be a haven of exclusivity complementing your perfectly accomplished life. Which means, the grandeur and opulence is reserved only for a handful of connoisseurs with a penchant for nothing but the best.

AN ADDRESS ASPIRED TO BY MANY.

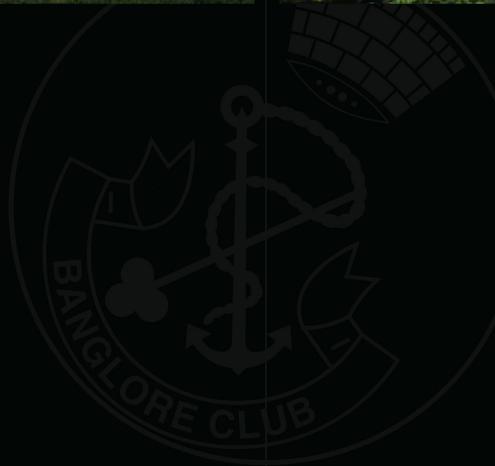

Of all the places in Bengaluru, Richmond Road has its own charm, a curious delectable nook offering prized sanctuary to the city's elite. Dynamic yet reserved, poised yet embracing, and decidedly quaint, while the city around magnanimously embraces the bright lights reserved for the burgeoning Silicon Valley of India.

Well-connected to the city, it connects you to the beauty of Bengaluru's bygone era. A leisurely walk takes you to Bangalore Club, while a short drive away is the languorous, heavenly green expanse of Cubbon Park. Reaching Bangalore Golf Club for a tee-off with friends won't take up much of your valuable time either. The buzzing MG Road and Brigade Road are easily within your reach for business or leisure pursuits.

HIGH LIVING.
WITH A TOUCH OF HERITAGE.

BANGALORE CLUB

The last remnants of British colonialism in the city, Bangalore Club is a world unto itself. A short distance of just 200 meters is what separates you from the Victorian precincts of this club where the elite gather for their share of preservation.

BANGALORE GOLF CLUB

The oldest golf club outside of the British Isles, Bangalore Golf Course is a treat for golf lovers. Tee-off at the beautifully landscaped course, or stay at the tranquil lodges to enjoy an old-world charm together with modern amenities. Either way, it is worth the experience.

CUBBON PARK

Meandering walks through the tree-lined avenues can be a daily affair, with Cubbon Park in close proximity to your home. This 296-acre oasis of green with its historic monuments is an interesting blend of nature and culture.

THE FINEST ADDRESS. FOR BUSINESS. FOR LIFESTYLE.

CENTRAL BUSINESS DISTRICT (CBD)

The nerve-centre of Bengaluru's trade and commerce, the Central Business District is where all the action is. Being core to your business pursuits too, it helps to have the CBD in close proximity. Making sure, there's not much of a distance separating your business from your leisure.

UB CITY

Very few names from the world of luxury can satiate your rich and refined taste. Experience the luxury of having them all at UB City – India's first luxury mall. Home to the most coveted brands from across the world, UB City meets your quest for exclusivity and unparalleled opulence. Just a short drive away.

BRIGADE ROAD

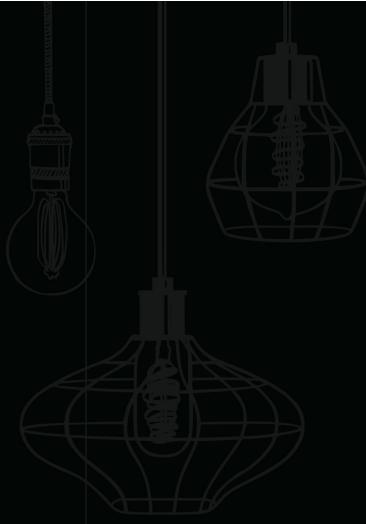

Named after a segment of the British Army, the Brigade Road has undergone a paradigm shift over the years. Today, it is Bengaluru's top shopping destination where people mill, for the best brands. While landmarks may have kept changing, you can still feel the old vibes of the place kept alive thanks to the delightful old structures dotting the lane. A short walk is what it takes to discover.

LIVE THE LIFE
YOU LOVE.

WE'VE BROUGHT
THE OUTSIDE
GREENERY, INSIDE.

Nothing has been spared to make life at Century Renata – a life full of rare privileges. Not only is it a much sought-after address in the heart of Bengaluru, it also brings the very essence of Bengaluru right inside your home. Curate, if you will, a nice medley of bougainvilleas, croutons, cacti – while the morning paper with coffee becomes the perfect start to the day. A wrap-around garden with curated landscape and open spaces becomes your private Amazon, with the chirping of birds, a beautiful morning medley.

THE PERKS OF A PRIVATE PARADISE.

With a private garden attached to your home, you might not fall short of space, but you'll definitely run out of ideas to best utilize it. A leisurely walk to gather your thoughts, a session of outdoor yoga to calm your senses, an intimate get-together with your close circle of friends or stargazing on a clear night are some ideas that we could think of. To make those moments even more priceless, we've gone a step further to screen off the units completely from each other, offering you the luxury of complete privacy.

LARGE RESIDENCES

Care has been taken that your home reflects your vision. That's why, limiting walls and defined boundaries have no space in your home. What surrounds you is plush rooms where timeless Mozart symphonies drift endlessly, and your vast collection of artefacts find their place of pride. And when you are in the mood for a tête-à-tête with yourself, large rooms will offer you just the privacy you need.

LARGE BALCONIES

There's a reason the large-size decks offer seamless connectivity from the bedroom and the living room. It's easy for you to retreat to your island of peace for a cup of coffee, have an outdoor brunch or just appease the bibliophile in you, even as you overlook the private gardens and lush green manicured spaces.

THE GOODNESS OF WELLNESS.
